

Kim Ziebarth Named Associate Commissioner of Academic Services and Student Affairs Utah System of Technical Colleges

Salt Lake City, UT – Jared A. Haines, Interim Commissioner of Technical Education for the Utah System of Technical Colleges, announced the appointment of Ms. Kim Ziebarth as the Associate Commissioner of Academic and Student Affairs, effective December 12, 2018.

“We appreciate and admire the great work that Kim has done for Davis Technical College,” Haines said. “She has been responsible for significant innovations and initiatives that have impacted the college and in many cases the System. She has built a great team and will carry her contributions forward for years to come. While she will be missed by Davis Technical College, her new role will provide even greater opportunities and involvement that will benefit the colleges and system”.

Ms. Ziebarth has worked at Davis Technical College for twenty years, most recently serving as Interim President since August 2018. She has previously served as Vice President of Instruction, Vice President of Development and Quality, Director of Institutional Effectiveness and Instructional Quality, and an Instructor in the college’s Information Technology program. Prior to coming to Davis Tech, she was a Senior Network Engineer with Borden Chemical, Inc. Ms. Ziebarth has also been active in the community, serving on the Boards of Directors for the National Technical Honor Society, Utah Women in Higher Education, and Career Path High School, and on the Education, Military Affairs, and Women in Business committees of the Davis Chamber of Commerce.

Ms. Ziebarth holds a bachelor’s degree in Political Science from Boise State University and a Master of Education degree from Utah State University.
